- GAME CONCEPT ARTIST & DESIGNER - about me

Known by my alias, Desyx, I have been surrounded by artistry and gaming my entire life. I am a spirited, driven game artist; with a passion for visual concept development, and career aspirations of leadership in the AAA gaming industry.

Immersion within vast game worlds changed my outlook on the real-world for the better, and I dream of crafting interactive universes that inspire players worldwide in the same way.

My intense desire to learn and natural competitiveness fuel my ambitions, as I consistently strive to improve myself and my abilities.
